Jewish Musical Tradition

The Zamir Choral Foundation, created by Matthew Lazar, promotes choral music as a vehicle to inspire Jewish life, literacy, community, and connection to Israel. The Zamir Choral Foundation is guided by an expansive vision of vibrant Jewish identity across the generational, denominational and political continuums through the study and performance of Jewish music at the highest level of excellence.

The Zamir Choral Foundation invests in the Jewish future through its many programs:

- HaZamir: The International Jewish Teen Choir
- The North American Jewish Choral Festival
  - The Zamir Chorale
  - Zamir Noded
- Jewish Choral Conducting Institute
- The HaZamir Preparatory Program
- The Mandell Rosen Fund for New Music
- Zamir Choral Foundation Missions to Israel

With an unwavering commitment to excellence in all of its programs, the Zamir Choral Foundation is training future leaders for the Jewish community and assuring the ongoing vitality of the Jewish musical tradition.

“It’s not just about the music. It’s about coming together as a community, finding strength in each other, and remembering why we sing.”
