Marty & Beth:

In gratitude for your friendship and contributions to the performing arts, we share this poem by Siegfried Sassoon written at a time of world upheaval. Take heart in knowing 'your singing will never be done'.

"Everyone Sang"

By Siegfried Sassoon (1886-1967)

*Everyone suddenly burst out singing; And I was filled with such delight
As prisoned birds must find in freedom, Winging wildly across the white Orchards and dark-green fields; on - on - and out of sight.
Everyone's voice was suddenly lifted; And beauty came like the setting sun:
My heart was shaken with tears; and horror Drifted away ...
O, but Everyone Was a bird; and the song was wordless;
the singing will never be done.*
